

Lyne BessetteGold medallist in tandem, 2012 London Paralympic Games

Lyne Bessette is born March 10th, 1975 in Knowlton, Quebec. She won gold in tandem at the London 2012 Paralympic Games as Robbi Weldon's pilot. World Champion in tandem in 2010 & 2011, she wins the Masters World Champion title in cyclocross in 2012. Olympian in Sydney in 2000 and Athens in 2004, she is crowned Champion at the Commonwealth Games in 1998 in Kuala Lumpur and silver medalist in 2001 in Manchester. Winner of the prestigious Tour de l'Aude féminin in France in 1999 & 2001, she wins the longest women's tour in the world, the Hewlett Package Women's Challenge in 2001.